These are the apps that I use every day to make travelling the world that little bit easier.

1. Flight Track

My favourite part of the flight track app is the live gate information on any flight. If you're running late you can stay on track with all the details you need so you can make a dash for it!

2. Weather Pro

The weather pro app includes a beautiful interface and incredibly accurate weather predictions. If you're planning the next stage of your trip and don't want to be derailed by bad weather then this is the app you need.

3. X.E. Currency

There's nothing worse than uncertainty when it comes to dealing with new currencies. The X.E. app gives live info on exchange rates so you can always be sure what your money is worth.

4. Skyscanner

Where would we be without this little gem? Make sure you never overpay for a flight again. If your schedule is flexible then I would recommend setting up alerts for your next destination. It will automatically tell you when your next flight is cheapest.

5. HostelWorld

Like SkyScanner but for hostels. This one has saved me so much money over the past year.
